OSMO Information Notice 99-02

December 23, 1999

The Office of State Mail Operations (OSMO) Year 2000 contingency plan calls for important Y2K information to be communicated to subscribing agencies in various forms. Two methods of communication we intend to use to keep you abreast of Y2K issues and related information are the Internet and the telephone.

A Y2K link may be accessed from our web site's home page and we have installed voice mail. OMSO's home page address is <http://www.doa.state.la.us/smo/smo.htm>. The voice mail telephone number is 225/219-7546.

As usual, you still may call our Help line (225/342-7391) to speak directly to us, use Messenger service to transmit correspondence, or email us at: sbice@doa.state.la.us.
